4. Multiple independent distinct distribution paths serving the IT equipment critical loads
5. All IT equipment must be dual-powered provided with two redundant, distinct UPS feeders. Single-corded IT devices must use a Point of Use Transfer Switch to allow the device to receive power from and select between the two UPS feeders.
6. Each and every critical capacity component, distribution path and component of any critical system must be able to be fully compatible with the topology of a site's architecture isolated for planned events (replacement, maintenance, or upgrade) while still providing N capacity to the critical loads.
7. Onsite energy production systems (such as engine generator systems) must not have runtime limitations at the site conditions and design load
